With all due respect to everyone addressed on this email:

I would like to request a face-to-face meeting (exclusive of Mr. Strickland) ASAP. This is NOT a Board Meeting, but rather a meeting of those I consider DMS senior leaders.

A lot of damage has occurred in the short period of time since we met last (like 24-48 hours). If we do not communicate in real-time, ASAP; I will have no other choice than to remove myself and the liaisons I have developed.

Please let me know when we can meet. What I have to say will take less than 5 minutes. I will entertain any questions or discussions you wish after that.

Should you choose not to meet with me, please just let me know and I will take the course of action necessary.

Thanks and I hope to see you soon,

John

No. Luke has demonstrated the insatiable curiosity of a two-year old who keeps asking for more information that he can't evaluate.

Use some common sense. He isn't qualified to qualify the contractors. Next request will be for the bids. He isn't qualified to evaluate the bids and he has demonstrated that he can't be trusted not to violate the confidence. We have to prevent that kind of breach - containing it afterwards isn't possible.

All of you need to get real serious about shielding me from these kinds of inane requests.

Any questions, call John. 972-423-9004.

Chris

Subject: Bidding Contractor Names

Chris,

Last night you and John asked if we wanted to know the names of contractors submitting bids. At that time I responded that didn't need them as I didn't know anything about them and was replying on your judgement.

Luke has asked Chuck and Chuck informed me that Luke would would like to know the names. Could you please provide those, my comment was for me personally. When no other members followed -up I think it was assumed no one else did. Luke may not have heard the statement the on the phone and is why he probably didn't speak up.

Thank you. Apologies for any ongoing confusion.
